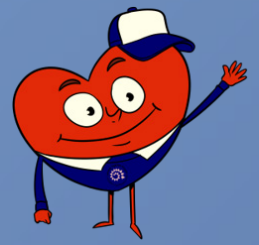
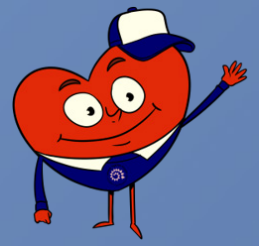
Ysgol Bryn Deva

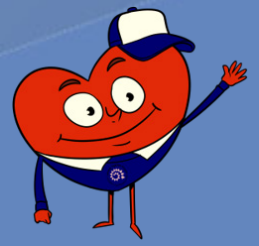
Developing Hearts and Minds to learn together forever



To develop a culture of reading for pleasure and information through both the narrative and effective learning environments



To provide appropriately challenging Numeracy experiences, relevant to the ability of all learners, matching their known maths ability



To develop the questioning skills of adults and pupils across the school to provide and enabling learning environment, whilst promoting independence and challenge

School Evaluation July 2026

Strengths

-Our school is a large part of the local community as a hub for parents and families.

- The school has an excellent learning environment which focuses on wellbeing and support, alongside having high expectations for both pupils' individual behaviour and learning

- Our learners make excellent progress in their literacy skills across all areas of the curriculum

- Learners are given a range of opportunities to develop their Welsh language skills and to participate in traditional Welsh activities, such as the school and local Eisteddfod.

- The new curriculum is delivered through a narrative approach which engages the majority of learners

- The school tracks all learners effective and provides individual care for those that need additional support

- Leaders know the school well, using effective systems, to evaluate the progress of all learners, providing support for those who require additional provision to meet their full potential

- We provide very good care for pupils with additional learning needs which allows them to make excellent progress

- Most learners have a good understanding of their own learning, using a range of skills to target their next steps through formative and peer assessment

- Most pupils feel that our school is a safe place , where children behave appropriately in the classroom

-The school is building good working relationships with other schools and organisations to promote school development.

-Our school maintains an open door policy which enables good relationships between home and sch

- The relationship between staff and pupils is strong and staff know the children very well
