

Anti-Bullying Policy

What Is It?

- It tells everyone that we have a right to be looked and treated fairly
- It makes sure everyone has the same information and everyone knows what to do.

What Does It Mean?

- It makes sure everyone knows how seriously we take bullying and how it makes everyone feel
- It tells everyone that children, teachers and visitors should be happy in school.
- It tells everyone what to do if certain things happen.

What Do We Do?

- We learn about our feelings and the feelings of others.
- We learn how we should treat and be treated by others.
- We try to respect other people's feelings and property
- We take time to think about what is important.
- We share our school environment and treat it well.
- We set a good example for others.
- We are responsible for our learning.
